SCHEDULE OF EVENTS & TOUR DESCRIPTIONS

Sunday, August 21, 2011

Start / Finish Line -

Heartland of America Park

8th & Farnam Streets - Omaha Nebraska

Olde River Ride 10 MI.

Registration 8:30 - Begins 9:00

This short morning ride beckons you with its beauty. On the extremely flat and scenic route, riders cross the Nebraska/Iowa border into Carter Lake Park and then return to Heartland of America Park.

Riverside Ride 25 MI.

Registration 8:00 - Begins 8:30

Amid beautiful scenery, cyclists will ride where historical trails and memories were made. The route takes you through scenic Carter Lake Park and past the Pershing Memorial Bridge before turning around at Forest Lawn Memorial Park located on the Mormon Bridge Road.

Tour De Fort 42 MI.

Registration 7:30 - Begins 8:00

The longest, most challenging tour features lake and river valley scenery, rolling hills, and a stop in the historic city of Fort Calhoun, home of the first military fort established on the Missouri River. The course returns on the Omaha Trace Road.

Finish Line Fun:

10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

A Rockin' Outdoor Bar-B-Q

A great assortment of reasonably priced grilled food, sides and soda.

Relax, meet other bike enthusiasts, and listen to music with celebrities from Q 98 Five in the park.

Corporate Team Scoring

A team's final score is the accumulation of all points earned by its employee riders, one point for each mile ridden. For Example:

Team ABC with 5 employees, 2 family members*

1 - completed Olde River Ride x 10 Mi. = 10 points

3 - completed Riverside Ride x 25 Mi. = 75 points

1 - completed Tour de Fort x 42 Mi. = 42 points

*Family members will earn points of 5, 12, or 21 miles respectively for the Company. (1/2 of route miles).

*Miles ridden by Team ABC's 2 Family members both completed the 10 mile = 10 additional points for the team.

There is also a bonus for those companies participating in the Bicycle Commuter Challenge. A Company will receive 125, 100, 75 or 50 bonus points (based on size of Company) for participating in the Bicycle Commuter Challenge.

Trophies and Awards

Corporate Team Trophy to First place in each Division based upon each Corporate team's total points within that division. Token Appreciation Gift to all participants.
